

"I still say we pull it and deal with the consequences of its being a false alarm when they come."

Your group is stranded on a deserted, uncharted island and your job is to create the following for your community:

1. A name and flag for your island.
2. A list of who in your group will be responsible for the following duties: hunting and gathering food; cooking; making shelter; exploring; fishing; caring for the ill.
3. What are the other specialized jobs you will need?
4. A list of at least 10 rules/laws for your community.
5. An explanation of how you will determine if someone is guilty of breaking the rules, and if so what the punishment will be.
6. A system for adding new rules in the future.
7. What resources do you hope to find?
8. What is the geographic land area?
9. Climate?
10. Any cultural traits, beliefs, customs?
11. Who is the leader/leaders?
12. What type of government will you have?
13. City and capitol?
14. Military?
15. Type of Religion(s)?
16. Will there be social classes?
17. What language will you speak?
18. What is your countries name?
19. Type of currency or will you trade? How will this be regulated?
20. Who is in charge of the Public Works – Trash, Sewer, Jail, Safety, Fire, Medical, etc.
21. Any other information about your island